

Leonard Garfield

Executive Director Museum of History & Industry

Bio

Leonard Garfield directs all activities at the Museum of History & Industry (MOHAI), working with the Board of Trustees, MOHAI staff and the community to ensure MOHAI achieves its mission. Mr. Garfield holds a M.A. degree in American Culture from the University of Michigan and has more than 25 years experience managing regional cultural organizations, including ten years as executive director of MOHAI and six years as executive director of the King County Office of Cultural Resources (now 4Culture), where he directed the programs of the King County Arts Commission and King County Landmarks and Heritage Commission. Previously, Mr. Garfield served as Washington State Historic Preservation Programs manager (1985-1993), manager of the Washington State Arts Stabilization Program, and Wisconsin State Historic Preservation Historian (1981-1985). Previously, Mr. Garfield was the president of the WA Trust for Historic Preservation. Currently Mr. Garfield serves on the board of 4Culture, and the Advisory Board of Coyote Central.